

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. Dr. Wolfgang Peter Harald Höppner

Person:

Date / Place of birth 7 may 1952 in Hamburg / Germany

Education:

1972-1978	Study of chemistry at the University of Hamburg Diploma in chemistry at the Institute of Organic Chemistry and Biochemistry, University of Hamburg
1979-1982	Doctoral student at the Institute of Organic Chemistry and Biochemistry, Children's Hospital of the University Hospital Hamburg-Eppendorf

Professional Career:

1982-1985	Post-Doc: Institute of Physiological Chemistry, University Hospital Hamburg-Eppendorf
1985	Sabbatical at the National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, Maryland
1985-1991	Assistent at University Hospital Hamburg-Eppendorf
1992	Sabbatical at the University of Konstanz, Biochemical Pharmacology
1992-2001	Head of the Molecular Diagnostic Laboratory of GLE-Medicon, Hamburg
1992-2002	Group leader "Molecular Diagnostics" at the Institute for Hormone and Fertility Research, University of Hamburg
Since 2001	Founder and Managing Director of Bioglobe

Awards:

1989	Research Award: von Basedow-Forschungspreis Schilddrüse, German Society of Endocrinology and Metabolism
1991	Habilitation at the Medical Faculty of the University of Hamburg, venia legendi in Biochemistry/Molecular Biology